Art Unit: 3753

Applicant's response of June 14, 2004 has been given careful consideration. Claims 8 and 9 have been included (rewritten claims 5 and 6) and are examined along with the elected group. Claim 4 has been amended to overcome the 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, rejection.

The terminal disclaimer embedded in the remarks (page 6) is not acceptable, because, among other deficiencies, the ~~extent of~~ ^{extent of} extended ownership interest is not specified.

See 37 CFR 1.321(b)(3). It is highly recommended that counsel use the PTO/SB/26 form found in section 1490 of the MPEP. A copy is attached to this office action.

Properly completed this form will overcome all ~~deficiencies~~ ^{deficiencies} of a formal nature involving terminal disclaimers.

The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

Claims 1-4, and 8 and 9 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1-9 of U.S.

Patent No. 6,698,512. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because they simply claim the same subject matter here more broadly than in USP 6,698,512.

Art Unit: 3753

The rationale for requiring terminal disclaimer in this particular situation is set forth in the Goodman case, supra.

The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Given the extensive amendments made to claim 1, there is no longer any step of "regulating the compressor capacity" in claim 1 and no antecedent basis for it in claim 2, hence its meaning in relation to claim 1, as now written, is unclear.

Claims 1, 3, 4, 8, and 9 are otherwise allowable (but for the submission of a proper terminal disclaimer). To expedite allowance, the Examiner would suggest cancelling claims 5-7.

Claim 2 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action.

Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
